NACUSAC Honors Members for Outstanding Service

Del Mar, CA – During its 2011 Annual Conference held June 8-11 in Seattle, Washington, the National Association of Credit Union Supervisory and Auditing Committees (NACUSAC) presented two prestigious awards in front of an audience of committee members and internal auditors from across the country.

Ken Kobes, past Supervisory Committee Chairman of Sound Credit Union, was honored with NACUSAC's 2011 Golden Service Award. The award recognizes a supervisory committee member who has demonstrated exemplary service to their credit union and the community at large. Kobes was commended for his 30 years of service to the $500 million credit union. During his tenure, he shepherded the credit union through many supervisory audits and examinations, and mentored many of the credit union's board members.

The second award was presented to Turner, Warren, Hwang and Conrad AC (TWHC), recognized as NACUSAC's 2011 Associate Member of the Year.

TWHC is the largest California-based firm specializing in credit unions and the nation's eighth largest credit union practice. The firm offers a complete suite of accounting and auditing services. Through their participation in NACUSAC's various educational programs, TWHC has provided valuable information and training to supervisory/audit committees and internal auditors of credit unions nationwide.

NACUSAC is the only national trade association serving credit union supervisory and auditing committees exclusively. Its mission is to provide leadership, support and education to enhance the ability of credit union supervisory and auditing committee members to fulfill their oversight responsibilities. NACUSAC is headquartered in Del Mar, California.
