Supervisory Committee Members Graduate from NACUSAC University at 2011 Conference

Del Mar, CA - In front of a group of supervisory and audit committee members from across the country, two NACUSAC University graduates were honored at a special luncheon held during the National Association of Credit Union Supervisory and Auditing Committees (NACUSAC) 2011 Annual Conference & Exposition in Seattle, Washington.

Denise Castillon, a member of SafeAmerica Credit Union's Supervisory Committee, and Tom Suter, Chairman of Wescom Credit Union's Supervisory Committee, were both presented with NACUSAC University diplomas by NACUSAC Chairman Robert Butler. Butler commended both graduates for their commitment to continuing education, as well as their dedication to enhancing their skills in the area of credit union supervision and oversight. The NACUSAC University curriculum consists of satisfactory completion of two levels of study, including twelve courses in the areas of auditing and accounting.

NACUSAC is the only national trade association serving credit union supervisory and auditing committees exclusively. Its mission is to provide leadership, support and education to enhance the ability of credit union supervisory and auditing committee members to fulfill their oversight responsibilities. NACUSAC is headquartered in Del Mar, California.
