

San Antonio to Host NACUSAC's 2015 Conference & Expo

From June 17-20, NACUSAC convention delegates and their guests will be deep in the heart of Texas in a little ol' town called San Antonio. Okay, so it's not a little ol' town anymore. It's a thoroughly modern city with a tree-lined river running through it.

The theme running through the educational program will be no less captivating than San Antonio's River Walk. Program highlights include a lively panel discussion, update from NCUA with the latest regulatory changes and comprehensive economic forecast. Nine concurrent session titles round out the program giving delegates plenty of additional topics to choose from.

And when you're not busy soaking up all of the training opportunities, you will have plenty of nearby attractions to explore. The Hyatt Regency San Antonio offers an unbeatable location that directly overlooks the historic Alamo and the picturesque River Walk, two of the most popular activities in San Antonio.

For planning and budgeting purposes, registration and hotel information are listed below:

NACUSAC Member Early Registration Fee: $1,145

Spouse/Guest Fee: $395

NACUSAC Hotel Rate: $195

Answers to Compliance and Technical Questions

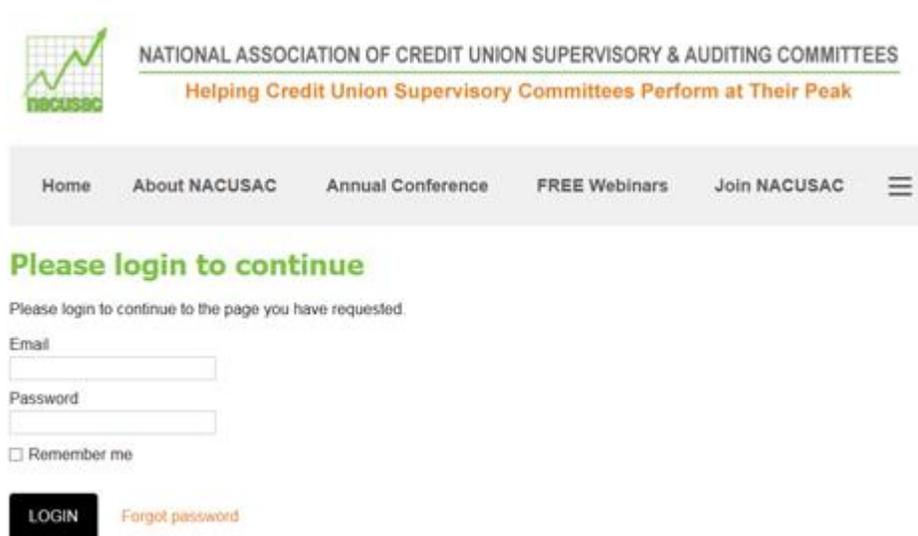

Access to a community of more than 500 supervisory/audit committee members and 15 auditing/consulting firms

The National Association of Credit Union Supervisory and Auditing Committees (NACUSAC) is a unique organization of, by and for credit union supervisory committee members. Since 1985, NACUSAC has been dedicated to helping committee members gain maximum effectiveness in working with their credit unions.

Helpful Tip #1: Are You Set to Renew Your Membership?

Since your credit union's NACUSAC annual membership applies to multiple people, the system allows us to link everyone together for member benefits. This group of people is called a bundle (within our system) with one person designated as the bundle administrator. The administrator is your billing contact with the necessary access to complete the dues renewal for your credit union online. Your email address (the one where you received this newsletter) is your key to member benefits via the website. When you log in the first time, click Forgot Password to setup your own unique password. Once logged in, click your name in the upper right corner to view your profile. This page will identify the bundle administrator's name at the top of the page. If you are the bundle administrator, you will see a summary of who is in your group. Contact us, if the administrator or other members in your group need to be modified. Check out our website for additional useful tips.

NCUA Hot Topics 2014

As 2014 draws to a close, what areas should your credit union be focused on in upcoming exams? For one, NCUA is looking more closely at cybersecurity risk management. This is a complex area and one that requires effective oversight and tighter controls as credit unions expand more into this domain. The FFIEC provides a helpful checklist for items to complete a comprehensive cybersecurity review, click here to download the checklist. NCUA will also continue looking at how credit unions manage interest rate risk with an eye on concentration risk and asset-liability management. Conference Attendees Find Another Way to Help

For the past several years, Karen Suter, wife of NACUSAC Board Member Tom Suter, has been the link between NACUSAC attendees and My Stuff Bags Foundation. Karen collects unused toiletries and other hotel room amenities at the end of the NACUSAC's Annual Conference. She makes sure they find their way to My Stuff Bags Foundation which provides childhood essentials and comforts to abused, neglected and abandoned children.
