Registration Open for NACUSAC's 2020 Conference in Hawaii!

From June 24-27, join credit unions from all over the country in Hawaii for NACUSAC's 2020 Annual Conference & Expo. With Waikiki Beach as the backdrop, attendees will participate in a program packed with topics focused on oversight, compliance, fraud, auditing and more. In addition, new supervisory committee members can sign up for an optional all-day seminar which includes financial literacy training.

Registration has been opened early for credit unions that have money left in their 2019 education and training budget. As more speakers are added to the conference program, check www.nacusak.org for more details. The Hyatt Regency Waikiki Beach Resort is now taking reservations at the NACUSAC group rate of $249/night. A limited number of rooms have been reserved in the NACUSAC room block. Be sure to make hotel reservations early to avoid paying a higher rate or a sellout over the conference.

Friday Event Announced: Diamond Head Luau & Dinner

NACUSAC Conference attendees will be treated to an evening of authentic Hawaiian and Polynesian experiences including cultural activities and a Farm-to-Table menu featuring locally sourced and grown foods. Included with the luau is access to the Waikiki Aquarium, a lei greeting, complimentary Mai-Tai cocktail, dinner and cultural performance. Attendees must pre-register for the luau when registering for the conference.

NACUSAC Membership Renewals on January 15

On January 15, the membership renewal notices will be emailed to the billing contact at your credit union. Dues can be paid online by credit card or mailed in by check. Since the credit union holds the membership in NACUSAC, discounts on training and free webinars extend to everyone on your credit union's committee and staff. The 2020 annual membership fees are $500.

When renewing your credit union's membership it's also a good time to log in to review your membership contacts and email any changes to lauren@nacusac.org.

Supervisory and auditing committees need the specialized training and resources that NACUSAC provides. Today's supervisory committees are held to a higher standard and require the knowledge and skills to help maintain the safety and soundness of their credit union. Here are the ways NACUSAC helps:

- Access to Quality, Affordable Education & Training - NACUSAC offers credit

unions FREE webinars and discounts on Annual Conference fees

- External Auditor Search Tool - the Select One program saves the Committee time and money on one of its most important responsibilities, finding an external auditor
- Complying with Mandatory Training Requirements

A Credit Union's Board Committee plays a significant role in its operations. With class action cases on the rise, you must be aware of any risks that could impact your organization. A recent class action lawsuit filed against directors of a federal credit union demonstrates how Board Committees must mitigate risk. Attend our webinar to learn fiduciary duties and strategies to mitigate risk.
