

Spring 2022 Issue

Fed Economist Joins Speaker Lineup in Baltimore

NACUSAC 2022 Annual Conference & Expo
June 15 - 18, 2022

Federal Reserve economist R. Andrew Bauer joins a compelling lineup of speakers at NACUSAC's 2022 Annual Conference in Baltimore. Bauer is vice president and regional executive for the Baltimore branch of the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond where he serves as the lead external facing officer for the Richmond Fed in Maryland, the Greater Washington metropolitan area, and West Virginia. In this role, he provides support to the Bank's monetary policy responsibilities and leads the execution of Bank's external engagement strategy. Bauer's presentation will provide a forecast on inflation, jobs, employment and the consumer behaviors that are driving the U.S. economy.

To see a full description of all conference sessions, click here.

Conference sessions wrap up in the afternoon leaving plenty of time to explore Baltimore's Inner Harbor. On Friday evening, attendees and their registered guests will be treated to a full ballpark experience with a barbecue-style dinner in the Camden Club followed by an exciting night of baseball when the Orioles take on the Tampa Bay Rays.

Register today to join NACUSAC in Baltimore at the Renaissance Harborplace Hotel. The last day to book a hotel room at NACUSAC's group rate of $135 a night is Sunday, May 29.

Financial Literacy, BSA Training & CPEs Available!

Financial Literacy Training Certificate - Wednesday optional Financial Mastery Course

Bank Secrecy Act Training Certificate - Thursday session: Focus on Anti-Money Laundering in 2022

Up to 18 CPEs* & 11 NACUSAC University credits available

* Must participate in Wednesday SC Training Session to earn up to 18 CPEs

Who Should Attend

- Supervisory/Audit Committees
- Internal Auditors

- Compliance/Risk Officers
- Board Members
- Anyone involved in oversight

View Conference Agenda

LEARN MORE >

NEWSBriefs✓

Spring 2022 Webinar Recap

Breaking Down Your Credit Union's Financial Statements

Jack Tracy, Shareholder, Financial Institutions Group, Doeren Mayhew

Understanding financials is a Supervisory Committee essential. With a basic knowledge of some key concepts, financial statements can reveal a wealth of intelligence about performance, successes, risks and rewards. Join Doeren Mayhew's Jack Tracy as he breaks down their meanings, identifies key measurements to monitor and questions you should be asking about your credit union's financial statements.

Common Audit Findings and How to Address Them

Olivia Whipple, CIA, Owner and Co-Founder
John Kaneklides, CIA, Owner and Co-Founder
The Audit Library

Do you feel like the same audit findings pop up, department after department, branch after branch, year after year? If so, you're not alone! In this presentation, we will explore the underlying and systemic issues that can cause problems at your credit union, and provide practical advice to resolve these issues for good! While each audit is unique, there are common themes and threads that deserve the attention and critical problem-solving skills that the top auditors and Supervisory Committee members provide. By learning about common audit findings, and our proven strategies to address them, you can stop problem audit issues at the source.

NACUSAC webinar recordings are available to members by logging in to the Member site: www.nacusac.org

© 2022 National Association of Credit Union Supervisory & Auditing Committees
PO Box 160, Del Mar, CA 92014 www.nacusac.org

Unsubscribe