

Fall 2023 Issue

As 2023 wraps up, we wanted to extend our sincere gratitude for supporting NACUSAC. Participation in NACUSAC programs exceeded expectations and kept us moving forward financially after three challenging years. Our members' continued support enables us to carry out NACUSAC's mission of providing essential training and education to credit union supervisory committees nationwide. We look forward to the opportunity to serve your committee in the coming year.

Include NACUSAC in your 2024 Budget

In early January, membership renewal notices will be emailed to NACUSAC members. Dues payments can be made with a check, ACH or credit card online. In planning for the upcoming year, the NACUSAC Board recently approved an increase in annual dues to $750 to keep pace with rising operational costs and to be able to continue to provide quality services and programs to members.

Since the credit union holds the membership in NACUSAC, discounts on training and access to free webinars extend to everyone on your credit union's committee and staff.

When renewing membership, it's also a good time to log in to your account and make sure we have current contact information for your committee and staff. Please email any changes to lauren@nacusac.org.

Don't Fall Victim: Fraud & Scams

Holly Spiczenski, Consultant in Risk & Compliance Solutions
Scott Hellenbrand, Corporate Property & Casualty Consultant
TruStage

Fraudsters are constantly evolving their tactics and identifying new, sophisticated ways to steal money and data from employees and members. Using common channels like emails, text, and phone calls; fraudsters typically disguise their identity while retrieving confidential member information. Their multi-channel approach looks for victims who find their stories convincing and will willingly click on links or share sensitive information, which can be used to authorize and transact many types of transactions.
