Philadelphia Conference Receives Top Marks

From June 15-18, NACUSAC Conference attendees gathered in the historic city of Philadelphia. An expert speaker line-up shared the latest oversight strategies and information with supervisory committee members and internal auditors from across the country.

The three-day program kicked off with a keynote presentation by futurist, filmmaker and author Ron Galloway and ended with a lesson in history from Benjamin Franklin.

The educational program received a score of 3.8 out of 4, and the overall conference experience was rated a 3.7 out of 4. One first-time participant remarked "I have attended multiple supervisory committee conferences and this is one of the best."

Patterson Graduates NACUSAC U

On June 16 at NACUSAC's Annual Conference, NACUSAC University graduate Randolyn Patterson (ABNB Federal Credit Union) received her diploma for completing the required program curriculum. NACUSAC University is a three-year program consisting of two levels of coursework, including twelve courses in the areas of auditing and accounting that relate specifically to the duties and responsibilities of the supervisory committee. NACUSAC Board Chairman Mike Mac Feeters commended Patterson for her commitment to continuing education.

Jones Receives 2016 Golden Service Award

During NACUSAC's 2016 Annual Conference last month in Philadelphia, Tyson Jones of We Florida Financial Credit Union received the prestigious Golden Service Award. The award recognizes a supervisory committee member for exemplary service and their dedication to credit unions and to the NACUSAC organization.

Jones is the longest serving Supervisory Committee member of We Florida Financial Credit Union having served for 21 years. His credit union has been an active member of NACUSAC since 1998. Formerly the City County Credit Union of Fort Lauderdale, We Florida Financial serves nearly 60,000 members and has $528 million in assets.

Jones has attended nearly every NACUSAC Conference since 2001. In 2013, he became a graduate of NACUSAC University after completing the three-year course curriculum.

Originally from the Washington, DC area, he worked for 32 years in the Broward County Government in Florida as a Parks Planner before retiring. He has a Masters' Degree in Urban Planning from the University of Miami.
