Helping Credit Union Supervisory Committees Perform at Their Peak

AN E-NEWSLETTER FROM THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF CREDIT UNION SUPERVISORY AND AUDITING COMMITTEES

NACUSAC's Fall 2016 Webinar Series

This fall, NACUSAC will be offering three free webinars to members. And because membership in NACUSAC extends to your entire committee, board and staff, there is no limit to the number who can participate from your credit union. The first webinar in the series focuses on credit risk, particularly around member business/commercial lending.

Use the link below to register for this convenient, one-hour webinar. The webinar will qualify for one CPE credit for accounting and auditing professionals. And, if you're enrolled in NACUSAC University, participating and taking a NACUSAC exam will satisfy the elective for Business Lending. Can't make the webinar? NACUSAC provides online archives of our past webinars that you can listen to you anytime, anywhere. Click here to login.

Achieving and Maintaining Credit Risk Maturity in a Challenging Environment

September 8, 2016 12:00 PM Pacific Time

A combination of regulatory, economic and competitive challenges is placing new demands on lending institutions every day requiring stakeholder and management to focus on developing an effective credit risk management platform around MBL lending activities. Effective credit risk management around MBL/Commercial lending allows the CU to expand its risk and market footprint beyond its brick and mortar arena and effectively compete in a larger marketplace.

Register today and learn:

- Regulatory expectations and industry leading practices around MBL/Commercial credit risk management
- Borrower-specific and global risk factors to consider in an expanded MBL/Commercial footprint
- Elements of effective MBL/Commercial underwriting and portfolio management

Webinar Speaker: David L. Adams, Senior Manager, Risk Services Crowe Horwath LLP

Dave joined Crowe Horwath in December 2014 after spending 5-years with a Big Four accounting firm in its Southern California credit risk advisory group. In that time, Dave has served over 65 lending institutions including: commercial banks, thrifts, credit unions, credit union service organizations, mortgage REITs and commercial finance companies. Dave is responsible for leading credit risk advisory engagements around credit review, credit review process assessments, credit administration process assessments, loan policy, allowance methodology and testing, stress testing and capital planning. His engagements included 3rd party out-source, co-source, internal and external audit assist. He also spent approximately 12-months working with the FDIC in its Receivership and Resolution program liquidating assets and winding down operations of failed banks.

Get credit for one (1) continuing professional education (CPE) unit for this webinar. No advance preparation or prerequisites are required for this webinar. This is a basic level course in Specialized Knowledge and Applications field of study granted through the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA). This is a group-live offering.

NACUSAC University: Passing a six-question test on the material covered in this seminar satisfies the Business Lending requirement for NACUSAC University. If you are currently enrolled in NACUSAC U, you will receive the exam following the seminar. (NACUSAC University enrollment is open to all supervisory/audit committee members of NACUSAC-member credit unions.)

NACUSAC is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors. State boards of accountancy have final authority on the acceptance of individual courses for CPE credit. Complaints regarding registered sponsors may be submitted to the National Registry of CPE Sponsors through its website: www.learningmarket.org

Conference Attendees Help Children in Need

Karen Suter, wife of NACUSAC Board Member Tom Suter, has been the link between NACUSAC attendees and My Stuff Bags Foundation for the last several years. At the end of each conference, Karen collects unused toiletries and other hotel room amenities. She makes sure they find their way to My Stuff Bags Foundation which provides childhood essentials and comforts to abused, neglected and abandoned children.
